

Small Planning Consultancy of the Year 2022

Arrow Planning Limited

Arrow Planning stood out within this category for their innovative and collaborative approach to planning.

It was noted by the judges that Arrow places great emphasis on providing a diverse and inclusive environment within which to work. Underpinning their approach is clear intention to support their young planners providing project experience, APC support and flexibility for the team. Arrow actively encourages all members of their team to improve and build on their business objectives and workplace environment.

The judges felt the submission provided strong evidence of innovative thinking and collaboration which was reflected through their client feedback. Whilst Arrow is a relative new comer to the industry, their submission presented strong evidence of tackling complex and challenging planning issues as well as working successfully within multi-disciplinary teams.

Arrow Planning are a motivated and committed consultancy producing high quality outputs for both their clients and their staff and the judges are proud to award Arrow Planning Ltd team, the RTPI SE Small Planning Consultancy of the Year 2022
